

its all I ever want to do

A full moon performance inspired by memory, hope, fear, and desires.

A collective of elegant and accomplished artists improvise and fuse stillness, music, shamanistic dance, and silence to breathe life into a visual, sonic and heartfelt experience.

“Beautiful images for the eyes / sound for the ears and / sense for the heart.

Expanded the happenstance of movement...beautiful!

As stunning and profound as an emotional extension of Wong Kar Wai's 2046. Thank you.”
